

INTERNSHIPS at Temple's School of Podiatric Medicine (TUSPM) can offer eye-opening and career-steering opportunities for students interested in pursuing health care professions. From primary care to surgical interventions, a wide variety of clinical services are experienced through our internships. Students looking to serve diverse patient populations involving patient interaction and who are considering careers in sports medicine, surgery, orthopedics and wound care should consider our winter and summer programs.

INQUIRIES AND QUESTIONS regarding our winter and summer internship programs can be directed to TUSPM's Office of Student Affairs.
